DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Examiner is unclear as to what key or keys are being encoded during the process of encoding. Specification page 5, line 9 to page 6, line 21 does not provide full, clear, concise and exact term as to enable one of ordinary skill in the art to carry out this invention with regards to what key is being encoded. Nor does the specification recite which keys are being pressed any number of times or which keys are being held to reach a pre-set time period.

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With references to claim 1 Examiner is unclear of language “sending the codes per-set times: counting the times of sending, if times reach the desired value...” (emphasis added). Examiner is unclear of the meaning and/or use of the word ‘times’. Does this ‘times’ refer to multiplication (i.e. a number times another number) or time (i.e. hours, minutes, seconds)? Also, with respect to claim 1, “encoding process: pressing at least one set of first buttons simultaneously to re-set different codes for the buttons (emphasis added). The drawings show four keys, one set of first buttons is not shown. Examiner is unclear how this is accomplished?

With respect to claim 2, Examiner is unclear of language “sending the codes per-set times: counting the times of sending, if times reach the desired value...” (emphasis added). Examiner is unclear to the meaning and/or use of the word ‘times’.

With respect to claim 5, Examiner is unclear of language “status read by legs into corresponding buttons,”. With regards to the term “status read by legs” the specification does not provide full, clear, concise and exact term as to enable one of ordinary skill in the art to carry out this invention.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1 and 2 are objected to because of the following informalities: claim 1, line 11 and claim 2, line 8 recites “terminating the jab”. Examiner believes this should read “terminating the job”. Appropriate correction is required.

4. Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: line 9 of the claim contains the phrase 'pre-sect' Examiner believes this should read 'pre-set'. Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

5. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show in fig 2 'input of keys' as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement-drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
